HARDING STUDIES CANAL DEFENSE

Inspects Forts Off Pacific End of Great Waterway

QUEST OF PANAMA CHIEF

Dinner Given in His Honor by President Porras

ANCON, Canal Zone — (By Associated Press) — Senator Harding devoted Friday, the last day of his short visit to the Pacific terminus of the Panama canal, to recreation, for the most part, altho he had several more talks with canal zone officials. The president-elect rose early for a game of golf, and later took a motor-boat ride. Late Friday afternoon he will leave by train for Cristobal, where on Sunday he will go on board his ship to return to the United States, sailing for Norfolk. His return to Cristobal will complete a three day visit here in which sight-seeing was combined with a practical study of problems which will confront him after he becomes chief executive of the United States.

Not the least of these problems are the relations the new administration will maintain with the republic of Panama, with the president, of which he exchanged assurances of good will at the banquet given in his honor by President Porras Thursday night. For the first time in the canal zone, during his motor ride he inspected the forts off the Pacific end of the great waterway.

Senator Harding's address at Thursday night's banquet created a most favorable impression, judging from comments heard after it was completed.

"The cordiality of your greetings and the fine spirit of your good wishes stir me deeply," he said, facing President Porras. "It is a fine thing for one republic to be so reassured of the abiding confidence and friendship of a sister republic. I am wholly convinced that I am here as a private citizen, and I am not permitted to forget, however, how much I may wish it, that I come to a great responsibility at a very distant day. Is it for that you honor me as you do? Believing that is the reason, I cannot believe it unbecoming to accept, because more cordial relations between peoples and riveted ties of friendship among nations is the call of the great heart of human kind."

"Moreover, the bent on this hurried visit mainly for recreation, I would be inexcusable to the obligations of citizenship if I were indifferent to the great sponsorship of my country. This is a most attractive land, and I would be deaf to the call of duty as a public servant in the senate if I do not seek a fuller understanding of the developing obligations of our civilization as reflected here, and aim to add to the friendly understanding, which becomes our two republics in their exceptional intimacy here."

"We are rather more than friendly neighbors quaffing the cup of most cordial association. We are spiritual partners in one of the gigantic advances of the twentieth century transportation."

"Your freedom and your genius and resources combined to link the oceans, and the day will come when the commerce of the world will stage its surpassing pageant here."

"Trade has made people eminent throughout all time, and this fact is no less true today than in the past. I need not assure you anew of the friendship of our United States for your republic. We are deeply interested in the development of your good fortune. More: we make our proven friendship to you to add to the confidence of all America, North, Central and South, in our people and our government. We crave friendly relations, and we wish to promote them and make them abiding."

EX-HUSBAND SHOT

Kentuckian is Victim of Escort of Former Wife

CINCINNATI — (By United Press) — "I am sorry I had to kill Orman, but it was his life or mine. This was a case of self-defense."

Thus Herbert Wigger, 35, of Covington, Ky., explained Friday why he shot Ben Orman, 35, of Covington, Thursday night in the Covington city jail Friday, charged with murder. The shooting occurred while Wigger was walking with Miss Alma Williams, divorced wife of Orman. Miss Williams refused to talk Friday.

Wigger said he and Miss Williams were discussing plans for a Thanksgiving night celebration as they walked down the street. "I saw Orman running toward us with a butcher knife in his hand. I drew my revolver and fired four shots. Orman sank to the ground," Wigger told police.

AUTO KILLS WOMAN
CANTON, O. — Miss Lillie J. Kaufman, 62, was struck and killed by an automobile while waiting to board an interurban car on the Canton-Akron road Thursday night.

"Y" OLDER BOYS ASSEMBLE HERE

"JIM CROW HEAVEN" PREACHED, CLAIM

"Treatment" of Negroes in U. S. "Described" to Moscow Reds

CALLED RICH SOVIET FIELD

Union of American Blacks and World Radicals Urged

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — Union of the American negroes with the radical elements of all nations to further the cause of world socialism was urged before the Moscow meeting of the Communist Internationale, at which both Lenin and Trotsky spoke, by the late American radical and magazine writer, John Reed, according to the text of his speech received here in official dispatches from Russia.

Describing the position of the negro in the United States, especially in the southern states, as "terrible," Reed declared "the negro offers a two-fold opportunity to the spread of communism in this country, first, a strong race and social movement, and, second a strong proletarian movement. Race consciousness has steadily increased among the negroes," he said, "a certain section of whom are now carrying on a propaganda in favor of armed revolt against the whites," and socialistic ideas are rapidly developing among the blacks employed in industrial establishments.

LABOR MOVEMENT
White and negro labor in both the northern and southern parts of the country must be joined in common labor unions, Reed proposed as the quickest way to destroy race prejudice and develop class solidarity.

Until recently negroes "were not admitted to membership in the majority of unions which comprise what is known as the American Federation of Labor," he said.

"The Communists, must not, however, stand aloof from the negro movement for social and political equality, which is developing so rapidly at the present time among the negro masses," Reed told the meeting.

"Communists must avail themselves of this movement in order to prove the emptiness of Bourgeois equality and the necessity for a social revolution, not only to liberate all laborers from slavery, but also as being the only effective means of liberating the oppressed negro people."

Describing the status of the negro in America, Reed asserted that despite the constitutional right to the ballot in the southern states, negroes were killed if they dared to exercise this right and that the use of separate schools, hotels and theatres existed in all parts of the country.

"JIM CROW HEAVEN"
"This separation of the negro from the white is called the 'Jim Crow' system, and the clergy of the southern churches teach that there is also a heaven where the 'Jim Crow' system is in operation," Reed declared.

Organization of the foreign labor in the United States for revolt and the co-ordination of radicalism in North and South America into a single movement was advocated at the same meeting by Louis Frana, secretary of the Communist Party of America, according to the dispatches.

"The American Federation of labor and the reactionary Socialist party try to institute Pan-American organizations," Frana is quoted as saying, "but these cannot be made to serve reactionary aims. The Communist Internationale in general, must intervene actively in the movement in Latin America."

CLEVELAND MAN SLAIN OVER DOLLAR, CLAIM

CLEVELAND — One dollar was the cause of a murder Thursday night, according to police. The victim was Henry Thompson, 35, of Cleveland, who was shot by Robert Momen, 35, of Cleveland, Thursday night. Thompson was shot in the chest and died at the hospital. Momen was charged with murder.

OIL KING DIES OF MYSTERY WOUND

Spectacular Career of Oklahoma Politician Ends in Death

SHOT BY WOMAN, CHARGE

Victim and Secretary Also Accused of Statutory Offense

ARDMORE, Okla. — (By United Press) — Jake L. Hamon, millionaire oil magnate and Republican national committeeman, died at the Hardy sanitarium at 8:18 a. m. Friday of acute dilation of the heart. Hamon had been nursing a gunshot wound since last Sunday.

Hamon walked to the sanitarium here on Sunday and said he accidentally shot himself while cleaning a gun preparing for a hunting trip. His story was accepted without question until Monday when a warrant was issued for the arrest of a woman who had acted as his bookkeeper and secretary for several years. She was charged with shooting Hamon and the national committeeman and the woman were accused in an information filed in court, of a statutory offense.

LIVED IN SAME HOTEL
The woman, whose name is Clara Smith Hamon, has not been located. She obtained the name of Hamon thru marriage to a distant relative of the oil king, according to reports here, but it was said she had never lived with her husband.

Hamon and the woman had occupied adjoining rooms at a hotel here for several weeks. Mrs. Jake Hamon was in Chicago with her two children.

Shortly before her husband died, Mrs. Jake Hamon expressed "fullest confidence" in her husband. "I feel deeply grieved that any other construction should be placed upon the incident," she said.

She had rushed to Ardmore with her two children as soon as she heard of her husband's injury. The rise of Jake Hamon from a penniless promoter to one of the richest independent oil men in the world, and a leader in the Republican party, reads like a fable.

RISE TO WEALTH AND FAME
Hamon's fortune at his death was estimated conservatively at $30,000,000. The foundation of his fortune lay in his scheme which he devised and carried thru in the development of a town site and a railroad in Oklahoma. He had no money with which to carry out his project, but he obtained a wealthy circus man would probably be more apt to be ready to finance the project than any other person. He made the acquaintance of one of the Ringling Brothers. It was said he deliberately turned over a cocktail glass in a New York cafe at a table where Ringling was seated, in order to meet the circus owner.

Between six and eight hundred delegates to the seventeenth annual Ohio Older Boys' conference, scheduled here for Friday, Saturday and Sunday, arrived in Lima, Friday morning from various sections of the state.

The convention is being held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. One hundred Lima Boy Scouts met the delegates at noon Friday as they arrived at the conference headquarters in the "Y" building, and escorted them to homes, thrown open to them in all sections of the city.

F. A. Stallsmith, scout executive, and E. A. Leeson, boys' secretary at the Y. M. C. A., were in charge of plans for taking care of the delegates upon their arrival here.

All delegates registered early Friday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. Following the registration they were assigned to their rooms.

FIRST SESSION FOR BUSINESS
The opening session of the conference in Trinity M. E. church, will be confined entirely to business. The session was scheduled to start at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, when officers for the coming year will be elected. Robert Markey, vice president of the 1919 conference, presided.

At 3:30 T. J. Tanham, state secretary, South Carolina, was slated to open the preparatory service.

Delegation meetings were planned from 4:30 to 5:00 in the afternoon. At 5 o'clock Scout Executive Stallsmith and his scouts will escort the delegates to places of entertainment.

KIWANIS ENTERTAINMENT
At 6:30 Friday evening two divisions of the Lima Kiwanis club will entertain delegates at dinner—one in the Trinity M. E. church, and the other in the high school cafeteria. More than 300 delegates will be dined in each place, it is believed.

From there the visitors will go to Memorial Hall. Music will be furnished by the Ohio Wesleyan University quartet and the Lima Y. M. C. A. boys' band. Walter Jackson will be master of ceremonies.

Mayor F. A. Burkhardt will open the evening session with a message of greeting. John Davidson will give the address of welcome.

Gordon Groth, Cleveland, will respond in behalf of the visiting delegates. Then the Lima Kiwanis club will take the floor with a bit of entertainment which they have labeled, "stunts."

This will be followed by the annual roll call of delegations. The principal address of the evening will be delivered by Dr. L. C. Wright, Cleveland, who will talk on "The Deeper Things in Life."

Monday afternoon and evening sessions Saturday will be held in the Trinity M. E. church. They will consist of addresses by prominent men, song services, devotional exercises, sectional conferences and recreational meetings.

Among those who will deliver addresses on Saturday are H. W. Gibson, Dayton; Dr. Ozora Davis, Chicago; T. J. Connelley and O. O. Stachfield, India.

Sunday morning the delegates will attend church services. The afternoon session will be held in the Trinity M. E. church and Sunday night the visitors will close the conference with farewell services in Memorial Hall.

NEW DEVICE DUMPS 40 CARS OF GRAIN INTO BINS OF ELEVATORS IN AN HOUR

A car being tilted to dump wheat.

One of the latest time and labor saving devices designed for shippers and receivers is a swinging track onto which a car of grain or other loose material can be run and then tilted at such an angle that the contents will run out the side door into bins beneath the track. The photo of one of the new devices tipping a car was taken in the Pennsylvania railroad grain elevator at Baltimore.

LED TO OWN HOME AS SLAYER OF WOMAN

Son of Wealthy Mississippi Manufacturer Accused by Trail of Bloodhounds, Arrested—Body of Victim Found on Farm Near Meridian

MERIDIAN, Miss. — (By Associated Press) — When bloodhounds trailing the supposed slayer of Mrs. Lewis Morris, 56, whose body was found on a farm near here Thursday, led a sheriff's posse, of which he was a member of his own home, Roy Miner, 22-year-old son of a wealthy manufacturer of this city, was immediately placed under arrest.

Miner joined the posse when the dogs were started on the trail at the place where the body, with the head nearly blown off by a shotgun charge, was discovered by his father-in-law, J. E. Johnson, on the Johnson farm, which adjoins that of the slain woman. He remained with it, while the dogs carried the trail to the Johnson home, where he lived, and to the bed occupied by him the previous night.

Johnson, who reported to the authorities on finding the body that he had heard Mrs. Morris "order an unknown man from her premises and later heard a gunshot, also was placed under arrest on information that the Johnson and Morris families, previous to the killing, had been quarrelling. Neither of the men held has made any statements.

23 ARE HURT AS TRAINS CRASH

Passenger Crashes Into Freight Near Bellefontaine

BELLEFONTAINE, Ohio. — (By United Press) — Traffic was resumed Friday, following the crash last Thursday at West Liberty, near here, of Big Four Passenger Train No. 10, northbound from Cincinnati to Toledo and Detroit, into a freight train standing on a siding.

Twenty-three persons were injured, one probably fatally, when the express car and combination baggage car at a smoker of the passenger train turned over on their sides. The other coaches remained on the track.

Railroad officials Friday said the accident was due to the passenger train running into an open switch. Responsibility for the wreck was placed by them with a brakeman on the freight train. He has been missing since the wreck.

It is alleged that the conductor of the freight train instructed the brakeman to open the switch to the siding after the passenger train had passed. The brakeman, it is claimed, opened the switch in the face of the oncoming passenger train, which was running at a good rate of speed at the time.

The injured were rushed here by ambulances and automobiles. C. P. Collins, Bellefontaine, engineer of the passenger train, was killed by escaping steam and may die. Others injured were L. F. Follock, Cincinnati, shoulder sprained; Margaret O'Neil, Dayton, slightly hurt; William B. Folley, Toledo, back sprained; Samuel Miller, Cleveland, slightly injured; Theodore Goldsmith, Toledo, back injured; Emma Nurchette, Detroit, ankle sprained.

Oliver M. Lau, Detroit, hip hurt; Jessie Jordan, Detroit, back and head hurt; Mary O'Neil, Detroit, shock.

MEASURE FRAMED BY M'CORMICK

Would Abolish and Consolidate Several Departments

NEW BOARDS ALSO PROVIDED

Action to Be Deferred Until Harding Takes Over Reins

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — Abolition of the department of interior, creation of two new departments—one to be known as the department of public works and the other as the department of public welfare—and general reorganization of other governmental departments, is proposed in a bill prepared by Senator McCormick, Republican, Illinois, for introduction at the coming session of congress.

Senator McCormick is now enroute to Europe and the principal provisions of his bill were outlined in a statement issued Friday from his office. The statement said that while the bill would be introduced on the opening day of the next session, action on it probably would be deferred until after the inauguration of President-elect Harding. The statement added that the Illinois senator, after completing the measure, discussed the proposed changes with Mr. Harding, "who expressed great interest in the bill."

NEW DEPARTMENTS
The proposed department of public works under the bill, would include all important engineering and building services of the government. The department of public welfare as outlined in the bill, would include various welfare agencies of the government, such as the woman's bureau now in the department of labor, the pension bureau now in the department of interior, the public health service, the bureau of war risk insurance and the vocational training board.

The department of commerce would be enlarged, so as to increase its usefulness to business. Creation of an office in the state department to have jurisdiction over insular affairs and territories, such as Alaska, also would be provided for.

ABOLISHES COMPTROLLER
The alien property custodian's office and the division of the worst service would be placed under the department of justice. The office of the comptroller of the currency would be abolished and its functions transferred to the federal reserve board.

The McCormick measure also would abolish the board of mediation and conciliation and transfer its functions to the department of labor and abolish the council of national defense and discontinue its functions.

The measure further transfers to the department of commerce the weather bureau, patent office, coast guard, lake and river police, hydrographic office, naval observatory and inland and coastwise waterways service.

N. Y. CLUB UNDER HEAVY GUARD

Prosecution Taken Against Repetition of Sinn Fein Attack

NEW YORK — (By United Press) — The exclusive Union Club on Fifth avenue, was guarded by police Friday to prevent a repetition of the attacks of Sinn Feiners which occurred there Thursday afternoon.

Four men were arrested in the rioting and were to be arraigned in court Friday. Three were charged with malicious mischief, and another, W. M. V. Hoffman, Jr., a son of a member of the club, with carrying concealed weapons. He is alleged to have drawn a sword, cane and defied the rioters.

The riot started when a crowd of Sinn Feiners, assembling for a MacSwiney memorial mass in St. Patrick's cathedral, saw a British flag hanging with the United States and French flags, from the window of the club, in honor of the tercentenary of the landing of the pilgrims.

The police rushed the crowd and several persons gained entrance but were thrown out by police. British and French flags were removed but were later hung out again and the crowd emerging from the cathedral, again charged the club.

Fighting continued for two hours. All the windows on the lower floor of the club building were broken by flying stones. The police charged the mob repeatedly, and there was brisk fighting on the cathedral steps.

Women led several assaults on the police. Many members of the mob were helped away by their friends, their heads bloody. The streets finally were cleared and police cordons established.

DIVORCE DECREES GRANTED TWO

Husband Gets One, Wife the Other—Two New Suits

With the intensive part of the Red Cross drive for members nearing end, Mrs. Lena B. Davis, campaign manager, said Friday that more than likely 3000 persons will have enrolled by Christmas.

Complete figures up to Friday noon show that so far 2637 persons have enrolled. Delphos reported 300 new members, while reports from Spencerville indicate that at least 250 will enroll there. Bluffton assures that between 250 and 300 will probably be enrolled there by the first of next week.

Mrs. F. H. Creps, county Red Cross organizer, will start drive next week in Gomer, Cairo, West Minister, Beaverdam and Harrod. The inclement weather has kept her from starting this work sooner. She will be assisted by Mrs. L. W. Bechtel, Gomer, Mrs. E. A. Miller, Cairo, Mrs. L. C. Cook and Mrs. Edna McGoy, West Minister, Mrs. William McBride in Beaverdam and Mrs. W. E. Heath in Harrod.

No quota has been set for these places and workers will secure as many new members as it is possible. Robert J. Flate, general director of the Red Cross, is very well pleased with the progress of the drive. Mrs. F. J. Berger is chairman of the advisory committee.

Altho workers will submit final reports in the next few weeks, the drive will be kept open until Christmas day.

ART IS PASTIME

Samples of Mayor Burkhardt's Work Placed on Display

An art collection, the work of Mayor F. A. Burkhardt, whose reputation as an artist has spread since he first took up drawing in a Y. M. C. A. night school eleven years ago was placed on display in the lobby of the "Y" building here Friday.

The display is one of the features of the seventeenth annual Ohio Older Boys' conference now in session here.

The display is timely, it was pointed out, inasmuch as the mayor received his training at a Y. M. C. A. night school in Lima.

The collection includes fifteen pictures in pastel charcoal, water colors pen and pencil. The display covers the mayor's progress from year to year.

Some of the pictures in the lobby are "Jacob's Ladder," "Seed on Stony Soil," "Grandmother," and "The Storm."

The mayor just recently completed two of his 1920 pictures.

"It's great work for pastime," he said and usually draw three or four each winter.

FINED ON DRUNK CHARGE, DICKSON APPEALS CASE

Lewis Dickson, proprietor of a pressing establishment, S. Main-st., has appealed to common pleas court the case against the City of Lima, on error, asking a fine in Police Judge Jackson's court be revoked.

Dickson was arrested Saturday night, last, in his pressing establishment by Patrolman Urter, charged with being in an intoxicated condition.

When arraigned in police court, waiver of a trial by jury was not asked of Dickson, but to which, it is claimed, he was entitled.

Judge Jackson fined him $50. He announced he would take the case to higher court and was released on $100 bond.

Dickson was given permission to file the case in common pleas court Friday and Judge Jackson has been ordered to turn over all the original papers, documents and mandates, to that court. Trial before Judge Jackson was held Monday, last.

HOME COMING AT CHRIST CHURCH

Advent Sunday is Opening of New Year in New Church

Home-coming day will be observed Sunday at Christ church, Episcopal, which will also mark the celebration of Advent Sunday.

It is the beginning of a new church year, starting out with a new church. Aim of vestry board and rector is to have every member and friend of the church present at the services at 10:45 o'clock.

Members and friends have been mailed cards of invitation and the telephone has been used to bring every family within the church on Sunday.

A special musical program will be a feature. Dudley Buck's "Te Deum" and "Benedictus" by Schnecker will be sung by the large choir, under the direction of Mrs. Forster Robinson.

Ernest C. Baird will be at the pipe organ.

Mrs. Helen Thompson-Carter and John H. Upp will sing the offertory, "Peace to This Dwelling," by Smith.

The Rev. Kirk B. O'Ferrall, rector, will have for his subject, "The Son of Man."

U. S. ARMENIA AID NOT EXPECTED

League Doubts As Appeal is Made to Wilson

GENEVA.—(By Associated Press)—The attitude among delegates of the assembly of the league of nations toward the appeal of the league to President Wilson to act as mediator in the Armenian situation appears to be one of hope without expectation that the United States will relieve Europe and the league of an embarrassing question.

Behind the admitted necessity of doing something for Armenia, there is a conflict of European interests involved. Great Britain, it is understood, would look with great disfavor on intervention by any power having rival interests.

Action by the United States in Armenia, it is held, would involve no such complications. The assembly will reconvene on Tuesday.

Committee number six, of the assembly has finally settled upon the principle of its report on disarmament, the French viewpoint prevailing. The recommendation will be that disarmament be imposed only with due regard for the security of the different states.

While a sub-committee is drawing up this report, the committee is taking up the question of an economic blockade as an arm of the league against offending nations.

DELIVER $124,000 CITY BONDS TO CHICAGO FIRM

Saturday City Auditor Rupert will deliver $124,000 worth of city sewer bonds to the A. B. Leach & Co., Chicago, Ill.

The funds, Rupert explained, will be used for sewer work in South Central-ave.

While many of Ohio's 83 Ohio State university alumni associations are staging celebrations throughout the state Friday, officers of Allen-co's alumni organization will get together Friday night and plan a jollification to be held within the next week or two.

Lima's date was not ahead, it was explained, because of the inability of many members to attend if the banquet had been scheduled for this week.

The jubilees are being held to honor the golden anniversary of the university, the million dollar stadium campaign and the western conference championship football team.

WOMAN TO SIT AS JUDGE IN OHIO

Miss Florence Allen Elected to Common Pleas Bench

NOW AID TO PROSECUTOR

She Will Administer Law in Cuyahoga-Co

CLEVELAND — With the election returns counted, it has been decided that Cuyahoga-co will have, after January 1 next, a woman as one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, and to the metropolis of Ohio goes the distinction of having been the first community in the United States to elect a woman to a judicial position of this importance.

The new Judge—Judge Florence L. Allen, if you please, when the new year begins—will be one of eight Judges to administer civil and criminal law in this county. Whether or not she will be assigned special duties as yet is undetermined, but men who have tested her ability in the trial courts and in counsel say that she is as well qualified to perform the duties that fall to a Judge as the average male citizen chosen for that work.

She is now serving as assistant to the county prosecuting attorney, and it was the record made here that caused her candidacy to appeal to men and women alike.

Endorsed by Democratic primaries as one of the party candidates, the federation of women's clubs here made her fight their own, and worked unceasingly to bring about her election. Prominent members of the bar added their endorsement, and it was not surprising that she led the list of nine candidates at the voting November 2, being more than 11,000 votes ahead of the next highest candidate and polling a clear majority of all the votes cast in Cuyahoga-co. Now that she has been elected, the club women of the county have begun agitation for the establishment of a Court of Domestic Relations within the Common Pleas Court with Judge Allen as presiding Judge.

"Men do not understand these matters," said a prominent Cleveland club woman in discussing the proposal. The laws governing domestic relations have been written and interpreted by men since the beginning of time. Legislatures, with the growing power of woman in industry, have given some response to women's demands, but the courts have remained the last refuge of the male sex—the holy of holies into which a woman could not enter.

Now that we have a woman on the bench she should be assigned to try the matters in which women have an especial interest. I believe that under this plan we will have more happy homes, less divorces and a more intelligent application of the laws that most vitally affect the lives and happiness of people.

"A woman Judge will not be concerned with the precedent so much as with right."

Miss Allen herself takes the honors she has won with becoming modesty. Still young—she is only thirty-four—she had been engaged for a number of years in general law practice here, when the county prosecuting attorney appointed her an assistant about a year ago. She was given general assignment work and tried many important cases in the criminal courts and her record of convictions is as high as that of any of those charged with the enforcement of the law upon the evildoer.

SPIES FLOCK TO MEXICO CITY

Chief Concern Centered on Americans, Report Says

MEXICO CITY, Mexico — Few cities in Europe are more spy-ridden than Mexico City. The spies range from political gumshoe men and women to detectives hired by concession holders.

Apparently foreign nations have not sent their most skillful Secret Service men here, as many of the political spies are too well known to longer hide their mission here, although it is possible that there are other spies, of a more adroit address, who are able to keep in the background and avoid attention.

The chief hunting ground of the spies is the hotel lobby, and they seem to be most interested in finding out what Americans of prosperous or distinguished presence are up to.

The presence of so many spies here is attributed to uneasiness of foreign nations, particularly Germany and Great Britain, concerning their interests here and to anxiety among concession holders as to what the new Government may or may not do.

Mexican Secret Service agents are also said to be on the watch for first information on any projects set on foot. Mexican politicians desire this information too, for reasons of their own—"graff" being by no means unknown here.

A short time ago a well-known American came to Mexico City with his wife. One day, while he was attending to business, his wife was visited by a woman whose title and conversation indicated that she was of high social standing. The visitor explained that she had called because she was "frightfully lonely." She asked for an hour, then departed. After she had gone the American woman, merrily, reviewing the conversation, made the mortifying discovery that she had been "pumped" as to every detail of her husband's business in Mexico City and his political opinions. She was convinced that she had talked for an hour with a spy.

Few strangers in Mexico City miss this experience but spies rarely seek their information with such blundering haste as in this case.

Goal Expected to Be Attained By Christmas

The divorce court began slowly to grind, almost before the Thanksgiving season was over.

Two wives sued for divorce; a husband was separated from his wife and a wife from her husband by Judge Klinger.

Mrs. Beattie C. Bradley asks for divorce from Lloyd A. Bradley, Dayton, Ohio. They were married in November, 1906, and she charges that since August, 1919, he has failed to provide for her.

Mrs. Lula Heck, in a suit for divorce against Frank V. Heck, charges that when she returned home from work she found he had ordered the gas turned off and had disposed of a part of their furniture; on October 16, last, since which time they have lived apart.

On two former occasions they have lived separately, she says. They were married in Zanesville, N. Y., August, 1914. Before her marriage she was Lula Stotts, and she asks restoration of her maiden name.

Harvey MacCauley was given a divorce from Grace F. MacCauley on the grounds of desertion. He told the court "he is now enamored of a man whom he married in November, 1919, and who spent much time in the MacCauley home. When he protested, he declared, his wife told him she thought more of the other man than of him and would marry him, if she could. She is now living in Bloomfield, N. Y."

Mrs. Hazel M. Rise was divorced from Edward W. Rise on the grounds of neglect and cruelty. He must pay $6 a week for the support of their two children, three years and one year old. Mrs. Rise said she was forced to seek shelter in the home of her parents when her young child was born. They were married in Kenton in November, 1916.

LIMA BAKING COMPANY

ASKS $2,491 DAMAGES

The Stolzenbach Baking Company, Lima, has entered suit in court against the Pennsylvania railroad company for $2,491, claimed as damages for destruction of one of their trucks and a load of bread at a crossing in Elida on May 11, last.

They charge there was no crossing watchman and that the train failed to sound signal, whistle or bell. The fact that the railroad is built higher than the road level with no gates placed at the crossing, is made a charge of negligence, the petition sets forth.

DANCES PLANNED

Saturday evening will mark the opening of a series of dances to be given at Memorial Hall. The Peerless Orchestra has been secured for these dances, which will be given every Saturday evening. These weekly dances are being arranged under the management of Frank and "Pinkie" Clark and are under the park plan.

BIG JUDGMENT ASKED AGAINST LOCAL PEOPLE

The property is known as part of outlot 81, Baxter and Cherry's addition to Lima.

HERE FOR VISIT, NEWLAND WAS JAILED ON THANKSGIVING

Carl Newland, 39, unmarried, spent Thanksgiving day in the Allen county jail.

Newland was indicted some months ago by the grand jury on a charge of grand larceny. According to Sheriff Baxter, he is charged with the theft of Liberty bonds from his aged grand-mother and with selling them.

"I settled that all up with my grand-mother," Newland told Deputy Sheriff Fraunfelter when he made the arrest.

"You haven't settled yet with the state," Fraunfelter told him, as he removed him to jail.

Newland had returned to Lima for a Thanksgiving day visit when he was nabbed by county officers.

EQUAL RIGHTS IS U. S. DEMAND

Note On Treaty Application Sent to Britain

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press.) — Frank representation to the British government that the United States will insist upon strict application of the principle of equal opportunity and treatment for all nations in territories placed under British or other mandate by the peace treaties, was conveyed in a note by Secretary Colby to Earl Curzon, the British secretary of state for foreign affairs, made public here, following its delivery to the British government early this week.

Discussing specifically the question of the British mandate in Mesopotamia, Secretary Colby's note, which was in reply to an unpublished British note of last August 9, declared the American government "finds difficulty in reconciling" the assurances of equal treatment for all nations in British mandates given therein with the special agreement between France and Great Britain regarding the petroleum resources of Mesopotamia. Secretary Colby, urging fullest publicity for all proposed mandate agreements and treaties, asserted the right of the United States and all the associated powers, regardless of whether they are members of the league of nations to consider such agreements and to "full participation in the rights and privileges secured under the mandate provided in the peace treaties."

"I saw Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertised and thought I would give them a trial. I got relief the first time I used them, and after using two cakes of soap and two boxes of Ointment I was healed."

"Gets-It" Wonder Corn Peeler

Just as Good for Calluses. Money Back if it Fails.

Don't be bothered through life by a pesky corn or callus. Don't let a corn tell you when to sit down. Don't wear shoes too large for you because a corn says you must. Get rid of the darned thing.

"Peel the Whole Corn Right Off and be Rid of It."

It's a revelation to corn sufferers, the wonderful way that "Gets-It" banishes corns. Spend two minutes—then "it" is all over. Apply for a drop to any corn or callus. The pain will stop instantly. In a few seconds the corn dries tight up. It has loosened so you can peel it off in one complete piece, root and all.

"Gets-It" is sold by all druggists. Money back on request, costs but a trifle. Mfg. by H. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

Sold in Lima and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Hume's Drug Store, Interurban Drug Store.—Adv.

GAS PRESSURE IS DOWN AGAIN

Fuel Supply Weakens Friday—Curtin to File Appeal

"If the Medina Gas & Fuel company doesn't afford better pressure in Lima lines by Saturday, I intend to go to Columbus and make complaint to the state utilities commission," President Emmet Curtin of the Lima Natural Gas Company said Wednesday.

"I wired the Medina company this morning," Curtin said, "telling them the condition locally and making demand for more gas."

This action on the part of the gas company head was taken when the gauge showed a pressure of only half an ounce on lines in the city Friday. In consequence there was not sufficient gas in most homes for cooking the noonday meal. The gas supply was ample for several days, until Friday. Pressure on the main supply line, Mr. Curtin said, was about five pounds Friday, whereas it should be 25 to 30 pounds.

"Damp, cold weather, is having its effect in a greater consumption of gas," Curtin said. "Too many four-man families are still using it for heating as well as cooking. In spite of the appeals that have been made for gas conservation. We are doing all we can to meet local demands for fuel and will continue to do so. We are now waiting to ascertain the attitude of the supply company in the matter of an increased supply for Lima and adjacent cities."

LEASE OF DELPHOS PROPERTY RECORDED

Joseph Stettin, Jr., of the Delphos, Pa., real estate company, has recorded a lease of the Delphos property, which is being used as a hotel, for a period of three years. The amount of $20 a month is to be paid for the rooms.

The lease stipulates the operation of the hotel is not to interfere with Stettin's suit, which place which rooms are in the same building. The lease was filed in the county recorder's office, Wednesday afternoon.

CONGRESSMAN REED COMING BACK TO VISIT LIMA C. C.

Congressman Dan Reed, Dunkirk, N. Y., who conducted Lima's Chamber of Commerce membership drive, is coming back, according to an announcement Friday by R. B. Dunn, vice president of the commerce body. Congressman Reed will address members of the chamber of commerce at a six o'clock dinner in the Elks club next Tuesday night.

Reed is a member of the board of directors of Dunkirk's chamber of commerce.

Officials of the chamber of commerce said Friday they were planning to give Reed a rousing welcome.

DRASTIC PRICE REDUCTIONS ON EVERY ITEM IN OUR STOCK

All Fall and Winter Suits Now Reduced Half Price

This is indeed unusual and is the first time in a good many years that such an event has been launched and will probably be the last for sometime to come. If you are contemplating the purchase of a suit you will do well to at least come in and see for yourself just what we have to offer as we are satisfied we can save you a tidy sum on this very essential item of your winter's wardrobe.

Our collection includes Duvet de Laine, Velour, Broadcloth, Tricotine, Silvertone and Serge in brown, taupe, Reindeer, Copen, navy, black, with trimmings of squirrel, opossum, beaver, nutria, sealine, embroidery or plain and ALL AT HALF THEIR ORIGINAL PRICE.

TO FIX NEW TAX VALUATION

Re-Appraisal Ordered in 61 Counties of Ohio

ALLEN INCLUDED IN LIST

Tax Value is 50 to 65 Per Cent of Real Valuation

Re-appraisal of real estate in 61 counties was ordered Friday by the state tax commission, as a result of investigations which disclosed that present tax assessment valuations in these counties ranged from as low as 46.1 per cent to 65 per cent of the real value.

The total tax assessment valuation of Allen county is $114,492,349. County Auditor Phillips stated Friday, including a valuation of $15,972,749 in the city, as reported by City Auditor Rupert. This represents 50 to 65 per cent of the real value of Allen county property. Auditor Phillips stated, "The amount of the actual percentage would require some time and considerable work, the Auditor stated."

ALLEN COUNTY INCLUDED

Counties affected by the commission's order are: Allen, Ashland, Athens, Auglaize, Belmont, Brown, Butler, Carroll, Champaign, Clermont, Clinton, Columbiana, Coshocton, Darke, Delaware, Erie, Fairfield, Fulton, Gallia, Geauga, Guernsey, Hancock, Hardin, Henry, Highland, Hocking, Huron, Jackson, Jefferson, Knox, Logan, Madison, Marion, Medina, Mercer, Miami, Monroe, Montgomery, Morgan, Morrow, Muskingum, Noble, Paulding, Perry, Pickaway, Preble, Putnam, Ross, Sandusky, Shelby, Tuscarawas, Union, Van Wert, Vinton, Warren, Washington, Wayne, Williams and Wood.

The commission is investigating the situation in a number of other counties and it is probable that additional counties will be ordered to make complete or partial re-appraisals, according to Commissioner A. B. Peckinpach.

WILL BRING INCREASE

The re-appraisal, according to members of the commission, should bring a heavy increase in the state's grand tax duplicate, although they were unable to estimate the possible amount. It was believed also that it will result in lessening the financial difficulties of some communities now having difficulty in meeting operating expenses.

Pending issuance of the official order to county auditors, the tax commission will proceed at once to determine the number of auditors and deputies who will be required to aid the auditors in the re-valuation. The commission will appoint such employees and fix the amount of compensation to be allowed.

HERBERT A. CHRISTY IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Christy resides at 132 N. West-st. He is auditor of the Lima Telephone and Telegraph company.

MRS. VANNATA DIES FOLLOWING OPERATION

Mrs. Nanna Vannatta, 55, wife of Stephen A. Vannatta, 417 Harrison-ave, died at the City hospital, Friday morning following an operation for gallstones. She was born in Beaver Falls, Pa.

Besides the husband, she is survived by a daughter Ruth. Funeral services at the residence Monday, at 10 o'clock. The Rev. William Denton, pastor of Epworth M. E. church, will officiate. Interment at Woodlawn.

16 INCH GUNS AS DEFENSE ASKED

Chief of U. S. Engineers Recommends Base Armament

EQUAL TO ANY WORLD FORCE

Proposes Inland Waterways As Part of System

WASHINGTON—(By Associated Press.)—Adequate defense of naval bases calls for the installation of no major caliber armament of less than 16 inch guns, Major General Lansing H. Beach, chief of engineers, declares in his annual report, made public Friday. The armament must possess power and range sufficient to oppose successfully any which can be brought against it by a hostile navy, the report asserts, and should be placed on fixed mounts.

Existing armament should not be removed, General Beach says, as it has an important function in constituting interior and secondary lines of defense, especially against armored raiding vessels of first line ships able to pass the outer main line of fortification.

Construction of a comprehensive system of interior roads and waterways, especially along the frontiers, is of great necessity as a measure of defense, the report said. A deep waterway between Chesapeake bay and Delaware bay, thence to New York harbor and Long Island sound, the report declared, would "provide a means of defense of immense value." The report contains recommendations for a ten year program for road construction in Alaska as outlined by the board of road commissioners for Alaska. Building of an additional 700 miles of new road at a cost of $10,000 a mile is proposed. Three classes of roads are contemplated:

Arterial or feeder highways; development roads, the location of which has not been determined and the present road and trail system which would be continued.

DEMAND FOR LABOR SHOWS BIG DECLINE

BOSTON.—Big declines in the demand for skilled and unskilled labor are shown in the figures for October, made public in the report of G. Harry Dunderdale, superintendent of the public employment office. Records show a decrease of 22 per cent in orders from employers as compared with September, and 42 per cent when compared with the orders of October, 1919.

DID YOU KNOW THAT IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO DISTINGUISH GOLDMAR BUT BUTTER FROM THE FINEST CREAMERY BUTTER? TRY IT DO-DAY.

Advises Ordinary Buttermilk for Wrinkles and Enlarged Pores

This Good Looking Young Woman Uses Old Time Recipe of Buttermilk Cream in a New Way—A Gentle Massage with Fingers Before Retiring All That Is Necessary.

Buttermilk and Cream—Simple Remedy Best—Keeps Face, Hands and Arms in Excellent Condition—Soft, Smooth and Beautiful.

The old-time application of Buttermilk and Cream to whiten and preserve the skin and remove harsh little wrinkles and ugly shallowness is grandmother's recipe and women throughout the country are again using it to ensure a beautiful complexion and snow-white hands and arms.

Buttermilk, however, is not always obtainable, but a specialist has at last perfected a method of concentrating buttermilk and combining it with a perfect cream, which you can buy in small quantities ready to use at any first class drug store by simply asking for "Howard's Buttermilk Cream."

There is no secret about it now; it is there any doubt about the result—it is just a common ordinary buttermilk in the form of a wonderful cream, gently massaged with the finger tips around the corners of the eyes and mouth.

To get the best effect, be sure to follow the simple directions. Druggists guarantee a noticeable improvement after the first application or they will refund the money. Keltner's Enterprise Drug Store, Hunter's Drug Stores can supply you—Adv.

"Pape's Compound" is the quickest, surest relief known and costs only a few cents at drug stores. It acts without assistance. Tastes nice. Contains no quinine. Insist on Pape's. —Adv.

"This season I shall expect you to supply them to me regularly."

Say this to him right away, that he may have opportunity to provide for a stock of these superior grapefruit and oranges.

Say also that some nearby wholesale house will regularly furnish him Sealdsweet fruits out of carload shipments received directly from the cooperating growers who form the Florida Citrus Exchange.

Say Sealdsweet to your fruit dealer and keep on saying it; if he hesitates, tell him you insist on having Sealdsweet grapefruit and oranges. Most good dealers like to report because they give such satisfaction.

The Florida Citrus Exchange is a great body of 5,000 grapefruit and orange growers who sell their own fruits to avoid speculation in them.

BOYS: I heard you turn down one utility the other night which was asking more money because operation costs more now and in the next breath make supplemental appropriations for my waterworks because it cannot run on the money provided for the same reasons the other advanced. Is that consistency? If privately owned corporations can give service cheaper than publicly owned ones, why not sell the old wreck which is breaking me up to someone who can furnish water for less? Any private utility getting the rates you are charging me for water probably never would pester you about increasing them.

LIMA BEANE.

To the Y "Older Boys"
MY DEAR BOYS: I understand you are with me today, 800 strong, from all parts of Ohio and that you intend to remain until Sunday.

Your ages—16 to 20—is proof sufficient that you will have a good time while here. Boys of your age always do. You are guests of some of my finest citizens in my best homes. No effort is being spared to make your brief stay here pleasant and profitable.

You're going to have a fine feast tonight as guests of the Kiwanis club and the intellectual feast that has been prepared for you by the Y. M. C. A. is going to afford you such a splendid demonstration of the hospitality of Lima that I know you'll want to come again. You're always welcome.

LIMA BEANE.

To Department Store Buyers
FRIENDS: Here's a hunch. Men buy two pairs of trousers with a suit and get twice the service out of their coats. Why not women's suits with two skirts to double the life of their coats?

LIMA BEANE.

To Y. W. C. A. Officials and Members
MY FRIENDS: Please allow me to congratulate you upon your first anniversary as an organization which you celebrated yesterday. You are doing wonderful work for the community and I hope that your second year will be even more successful than the first. I feel that when you get into your new home you will be able to accomplish much more than you are now. May the erection of it not be unnecessarily delayed.

LIMA BEANE.

To The Public
DEAR PALS: I had a fine time on Thanksgiving day and trust you enjoyed the annual thanks day in a similar manner. I hope you appreciated your turkey and cranberry sauce (if you were that fortunate) as well as I did liver and onions.

And I don't envy you your turkey, for if there is anything I like better than liver and onions, it is more liver and onions.

LIMA BEANE.

To Basket Ball Fans
DEAR FRIENDS: It's mighty pleasing to me to be afforded the information that you're going to have a full measure of the exciting indoor game this winter.

I'm going to enjoy it with you, rooting for the home team and helping to keep the sport fast and clean. Sport is real sport only when it is kept free of unsportsmanlike methods. I anticipate no trouble along this line in Lima.

LIMA BEANE.

To J. K. Johnson
DEAR MR. JOHNSON: The officers of my Chamber of Commerce inform me that they have tendered you the very responsible position of secretary of that organization and that you are to be on the job beginning January 1, 1921.

I have a big task laid out for you here and if you are the right man for the place, you'll never complain about the job not affording you something to do. My plans for Lima for the future make up a big program and I'm going to rely on you a lot.

As you prepare to leave Gloversville, New York, think of Lima as the hub of the best part of the best state of the best country on earth. Please call when you come to Lima. I want to know you personally.

LIMA BEANE.

To City Auditor Ruppert
MY DEAR DAVE: I want to compliment you and the other city officials who stood by you in fighting thru the courts the case of the ownership of that certified check for $4,770, given by a bond buying house, which was forfeited by the refusal of the makers of the check to take $50,000, the remainder of a bond issue they had contracted to purchase.

You have established a precedent in fighting to the last ditch—the supreme court—to demonstrate that a contract is a contract. The money will come handy in helping the sinking fund trustees to take care of their department of the city's necessary expenditures.

LIMA BEANE.

To Soft Drink Bottlers
GENTLEMEN: When sugar went up your prices went up so the retail price mounted an average of two cents. When sugar dropped 20 cents the retail price remained the same. Why?

LIMA BEANE.

To Lima Kiwanians
BOYS: Bill Kiwan tells me that you're going to have your annual election of directors on December 7. Bill also has informed me that he has placed in nomination about two dozen of the best scouts in the organization, one dozen of whom will be designated by the members by ballot to serve during the coming year.

As for me (and you can safely do the same) I'm going to close my eyes and mark twelve names on the ballot, well satisfied that no matter whom I vote for, I'll be selecting the best. The candidates you have nominated precludes the possibility of a mistake being made, no matter who is elected.

LIMA BEANE.

To J. H. McClure, Vice President Ohio Electric
DEAR MAC: Ever ride on street cars your company operates for me? If you haven't been in the habit of doing this, why not make a few trips occasionally to see how things are run. Besides being good exercise for you it would give you first-hand information on how your conductors handle the public.

I would not advise you to seek advice or a favor from some of those on the "rear end" if you are traveling incoog for you might have your feelings hurt. On the other hand, you would see some performing service that would make you proud they are connected with your concern. I have some specific cases of both kinds in mind now.

HEALTH HINTS

By William Brady, M. D.

NEAR-SIGHTEDNESS AND VISION
The near-sighted eye is too long from front to back. It is often determined by a skull shape which is long from front to back. The Teutonic skull is that shape and near-sightedness is therefore common in persons of Teutonic ancestry. The Indian and Negro skulls are rather short from front to back, and in these races near-sightedness is rare.

Far-sightedness may be compensated to a certain degree by straining to focus the eyesight, but there is no way in which the near-sighted eye can overcome its deficiency save by artificial lenses. By squinting the lids, so that some of the marginal rays of light are excluded, the near-sighted individual may see slightly clearer, but only slightly.

Near-sightedness tends to progress from bad to worse from year to year, up to the age of twenty to twenty-five years, when it generally does not show further increase.

If the child is carefully treated from the earliest discovery of the defect of vision which is usually around the age of seven or eight years, fairly good vision will be maintained throughout life. If the near-sightedness is not recognized and properly treated the eyes may undergo grave changes which may threaten vision itself.

By proper treatment I mean the regular care and advice of the oculist. When the oculist has measured the child's vision and considered the child's individual requirements he will prescribe the proper lenses and instruct the child or parents as to the care of the eyes.

A number of young persons write me and ask whether it will not be better for them to leave off their glasses part of the time, also they are near-sighted and cannot see clearly without the glasses. They harbor a notion that they should "exercise" the eye, and that the constant use of glasses will somehow "weaken the sight." Both of these ideas are groundless in any case, and in the case of near-sightedness it is very bad policy to omit the glasses at any time when the eyes are to be used. The glasses save the eyes.

Near-sightedness is never "outgrown." Well for that matter, no other anatomical defect or disease is ever outgrown. (The technical name for near-sightedness is myopia, and near-sighted individuals are called myopes.)

JUST A GIRL

BY JANE PHELPS

A PROPOSAL

"Miss Stewart, Zena, will you marry me?" I fairly gasped with astonishment. It was Mr. Betts, the general manager, who had asked the question. He had come out of his way for some time to efface the impression I had of him when I first went into the office. But that he had any such idea in his mind as marriage I had not even dreamed.

"Why—no—Mr. Betts!" I stammered.

"Perhaps I was too sudden," he said with a smile, "but I wanted you to know that is the way I feel toward you. If you will let me, I will make you care for me; and I'll make you nothing more about marriage until you do. But I was afraid you'd think I didn't mean to be square by you, so I asked you to marry me first; then I can do my courting knowing that you understand I mean to be honest with you."

Did any girl ever have so queer a proposal. In a way his words were almost an insult, also I knew he did not intend them to be so.

"I am not afraid that any man will not be square with me, Mr. Betts. I am fully capable of taking care of myself. I thank you for the honor you would pay me, but I must say no, and also ask you never to speak of this again."

I knew I spoke stiffly. That, I could not help. I disliked the man intensely, and he knew it—at least I felt that he did. I also felt he had no right to approach me as he had; yet, what could I do? I had not encouraged him in any way; in fact I had ignored him whenever possible, and been cordially polite at other times.

"Am I intruding?" a sneering voice asked as Miss Wilcox appeared in the doorway.
"Not at all!" I replied cordially, for the first time really glad of her company.

"I'll come in then,"
It was the noon hour, and because of a frightful storm the office boy had brought us some sandwiches and so saved us the necessity of going out.

"I ain't the kind that but in," Jennie remarked as she sat down. "You sure you weren't talking private matters?"

"Quite sure!" I answered. "I have nothing of a private nature to discuss with Mr. Betts." Jennie looked relieved at my reply, but I felt sure she more than half guessed what had happened. And as by this time I realized perfectly that she looked upon Mr. Betts as her own man, I was glad I did all I could to let her see I was pleased to have her come in.

After a bit he left us alone.
"He's stuck on you!" Jennie said, motioning toward his retreating figure.

"As long as I am not fond of him I don't see that it makes any difference how he feels—any real difference."

"You're a funny girl. I don't see how you can help liking him. Don't you think he is handsome? And he has to be smart to have his position and get the salary he does. I can't understand how you can turn him down." The last was said a bit wistfully.

"He is handsome, and as you say must be smart—at least in his line. But he isn't a good thing we don't all admire the same sort of people! What a hair-pulling time we girls would have if we all were in love with the same man."

Jennie laughed rather sheepishly. "I guess I haven't been very nice to you," she said slowly, as if the words came with an effort, "but I thought you were setting your cap for him, and—well—until you came—"

"He liked me. He said he did any way," she said lastly.

"He probably did, and does. So don't fret about him. As far as I am concerned I would rather have your friendship than anything he could do for me."

"Is that honest, Zena?"
"Yes, Jennie."

I was surprised at her action. The tears rushed to her eyes, and she said:

"I have been so unhappy! You see—"

"Now that I know you are my friend, and if he knows it too, perhaps he will keep his promise."

His return to the room with work for Jennie saved me the necessity of replying.

YOUR NAME

By PHILIP FRANCIS NOLAN

VARIATION—O'Hay.

RACIAL ORIGIN—Irish.

SOURCE—A given name.

The family name of Hay, as developed among the English from the same Anglo-Saxon source that has given us the names of Hodges and Haig, has been explained in another article.

In a very great number of instances, however, the name is purely Gaelic, and has no connection, other than a chance identical spelling, with the English Hay.

This Irish form as it is spelled today, that is, in its Anglicized form, is a result of that shifting of letters which nearly always has occurred where the original given name commenced with a vowel.

The given name from which O'Hay and Hay are derived was "Aedha," formed from the Gaelic word "aedh" or "aodh" meaning "fire" or "life."

Since the regular formation of the Irish clan names was by the prefixing of "mac" or "ua," when the latter prefix was used with a name beginning in a vowel it was necessary for the sake of euphony to insert an "h" sound between the two words, thus, "Ua-Aedha." At a later period, when the "ua" became "O," the name of the "Siol Aedha" (the Clan Hay) of Munster became "O'Aedha." Finally in the translation of the name into English with the substitution of the English for the Gaelic alphabet, this fine distinction of the "h" was lost, and the name, spelled as it was pronounced, became O'Hay. In many cases the "O" has been dropped, making the name identical in spelling with the English name.

Tomorrow—Diffendorfer.

WOMEN NEED SWAMP-ROOT

Thousands of women have kidney and bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

Pain in the back, headache, loss of ambition, nervousness, are often times symptoms of kidney trouble.

Don't delay starting treatment. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription, obtained at any drug store, may be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.

The Coming War Between the "Closed" and "Open" Shop

In the belief that the "open-shop" crusade is intended to undo everything union labor has accomplished and to "feudalize America," the heads of the American Federation of Labor are making war plans. These labor leaders agree "that a united front must be presented to these attacks, and that every unwarranted attempt to reduce wages and working conditions to prewar levels must be resisted with every legitimate weapon." Thus, as the Baltimore Sun notes, labor and capital are lining up for a finish fight. The leading business interests "will bargain collectively with labor only when forced to do so" and "a concentrated campaign of the employers' interests already has been launched against organized labor on the reaffirmation of the 'open shop' principle and on the stand that wages must be reduced as part of the process of deflation."

The labor situation is probably the biggest problem that confronts the great mass of the American people to-day, and as this article in the "DIGEST" this week—November 27th—presents opinions from all sides, it will be read closely.

We wonder if there were any Democratic officeholders who gave thanks yesterday.

Babe Rolfeigh has a heavy dog hide coat. There are usually about four days out of the whole three hundred and sixty-five, when it is really cold enough to wear this aggregation of canine hide and hair. Young Rolfeigh had just about struck up a deal to sell his coat to Skeeter Sheets, who is just starting out to attract the attention of the girls.

But the other night Babe brought his school marm, in his Henry, to town to see the picture show. As he got in the car, and started out into the country roads she snuggled down close agair t him, and stroked the hairy coat with two cunning little hands, saying, "Oh, the nice ole colley toatsey, my, my, but ain't it nice an' wa' mxy!" Next day Babe told Skeeter he had got out of the notion to sell the coat. He guessed he'd keep it.—Lamar (Mo.) Democrat.

This is an uncertain day. All activities should be pursued carefully today, and it is well to keep to routine matters while this sign prevails.

It is not a lucky day for seeking appointments or promotion.

LIMA'S BABY CROP IS IMPORTANT

Only 72 Out of Every 1,000 Die During First Year

FIGURES ARE INTERESTING

Data Afforded by County Health Commissioner J. B. Poling

Lima is having good success in raising the country's most important crop—babies. Only 72 out of every thousand babies die here during that critical first year of a baby's existence.

Seattle, Washington, of all the big cities, is having the best success. There the rate is 54 for every thousand, or 18 less than Lima.

And of all the 526 incorporated cities in the country, Brookline, Mass., has the lowest death rate—40 out of every thousand—while El Paso, Texas, has the highest infant mortality, 245 deaths occurring among babies under one year old out of every thousand.

These are just a few of the interesting things brought out in the preliminary "baby crop" report on file in the office of Health Commissioner J. B. Poling. The figures were compiled by the American Child Hygiene Association.

The census bureau issues a similar report each year but because of the vast amount of labor involved, official figures for 1919 may not be ready before the middle of 1921, it was explained.

MORTALITY RATE REDUCED
In 1918 Lima's infant mortality rate was 93. It was reduced to 72 last year. In 1918 there were 100 deaths here under the age of one year. In 1919 the number was cut almost in half, to 63.

It was shown at the Health Commissioner's office here Friday that Lima parents and some physicians show a laxity in reporting births and having them registered.

"The way to reduce the infant mortality rate," Dr. Poling said, "is to have every baby registered in the health office, as required by law."

The American Child Hygiene Association's report includes figures from 369 cities in the country of over 10,000 population.

Letters were sent out to health officers in every one of the country's 526 incorporated cities. Replies were received from 296, totaling a population of over thirty-one millions.

This is a large proportion of the country. In this area over 680,000 babies' births were reported. The estimated births for the entire United States amount to about two and a half million.

Last year, the report shows, was the best ever for babies. For the 296 cities, taken together, the infant mortality rate—which means the number of babies who died per thousand born—fell to the encouraging figure of 72. That is a saving of nearly 12,000 over the 1918 rate.

INFLUENZA SCOURGE RECALLED
That year, however, will be remembered for its great influenza scourge and the comparison is hardly fair. If the 1917 rate, 93, had prevailed, 7,000 more babies would have died, the report indicates.

Medical science has shown that 50 per cent of the baby deaths are unnecessary and can be prevented. Practical experience proves it, they say.

In our largest cities the death rate for babies formerly was very high and it is still high in some of them. There is the dense congestion, poverty and ignorance to combat. All most all of these cities now spend money for child hygiene work. The results are shown in the infant mortality rate.

For the first time since the report has been available the lowest rate is made by cities from 25,000 to 50,000, which includes Lima—and the rate is 34 with 76 per cent of their number below the 100 mark.

Even in the smaller communities the report evidences, more and more is being done and it is appreciated that money, used in saving babies is money well spent.

The report urges every community to ask itself the following questions:

Are all births registered? Can all mothers get prenatal care? Are our midwives licensed and inspected? Have we child centers? Are our school children taught health habits? Do we have medical school inspection?

GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia To Overcome Trouble Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion.

Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion."

Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis accompanied by serious stomach disorders. Food ferments and sour, creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs often affecting the heart.

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any druggist a few cures of Bisulphated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This will drive the gas, wind and bloating right out of the body, sweeten the stomach, neutralize the excess acid and prevent its formation and there is no sourness or pain.

Bisulphated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and the best form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion—Ad.

A number of Thanksgiving dances were featured by the various clubs on the eve and morning of Thanksgiving. The Lima Club was the scene of a delightful affair Wednesday evening when the members and their friends enjoyed an evening of dancing. The Carillon Orchestra furnished music for the occasion.

The members of the El Karan Grotto were hosts on Wednesday evening at a dancing party at the Masonic Temple and the annual Masonic dance was held. Thursday evening the Social Club also entertained on Wednesday evening with a dance at the St. Rose auditorium.

The first of a series of winter dances was given on Thanksgiving evening by the members of the Junior Circle of the Knights of Columbus. These dances are to be made weekly affairs and the one of Thursday was a decided success.

Miss Marie Boncker, daughter of Mrs. Martha Nilauer, Marion, became the bride of Floyd Risen at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Samuel Hucker, Market-st. Presbyterian church. Miss Alice McKenna was the only attendant.

The bride wore an attractive tailored suit of blue with a small hat to match. Her corsage bouquet was of pink roses and sweet peas.

An elaborate wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's grandfather, H. B. Metzger, N. McClellan-st., with whom she has been making her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Rison will make their home at 130 N. West-st., following a short wedding trip.

Mrs. Eliza Coney, St. Mary's, celebrated her eighty-fourth birthday on Thanksgiving at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. R. Hollingsworth.

A wedding of interest took place Wednesday morning at 6:30 o'clock at the St. Rose Catholic church when Miss Elizabeth Bohn became the bride of Edward McGrover. Rev. Father Williams read the nuptial high mass.

Miss Mary Curry, intimate friend of the bride, was maid of honor and Michael Brookhardt attended the bride groom.

A four course breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Short.

Mr. and Mrs. McGrover left immediately for Oakwood, where they will visit with friends and upon their return will be at home on Marion-ave.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin King, 108 N. Pine-st., occurred the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary L. King, to Ichabod E. Rupert, at high noon. Rev. A. W. Bullinger read the impressive rite ceremony, witnessed only by the immediate families.

SUSIE SMART SAYS

Dear Susie Smart: I became acquainted with a young girl about two years ago and I have been going with her steady. She likes me awfully well and of course I like her but I am a divorced man and a Catholic. As you know Catholics are not to marry the second time. Do you think that it is right for me to continue my company with her?

WORRIED
Your letter is not explicit but I infer from it that Catholics who are divorced are not to marry the second time. I should advise you to tell your girl friend of this custom which prevails in the Catholic religion. Perhaps she does not understand it fully; then if she still desires your company, that is up to her. You must remember, however, that while you are keeping steady company with this girl that you are barring her chances of going with young men who can marry her.

Dear Miss Smart: Will you please answer the following questions: What are the addresses of Viola Dana, Bryant Washburn, William Russell, Ruth Roland, Dorothy Gish, Jack Pickford, Madeline Travers, George Walsh, Gladys Brockwell, Mary Pickford, Alice Brady, Constance Talmadge, Norma Talmadge, Francis X. Bushman, Clara Kimball Young, Harold Lloyd, Bebe Daniels and Douglas Fairbanks? Are you a man or a woman?

DOLLY
(A) I think that you will be able to locate the actors and actresses of whom you inquire at the following places: Viola Dana at the Metro Studio, Hollywood, Cal.; Bryant Washburn, 7003 Hawthorne-ave., Hollywood, Cal.; William Russell, American, Santa Barbara; Dorothy Gish, Griffith, Hollywood, Cal.; Jack Pickford, Famous Players, Hollywood, Cal.; George Walsh, Fox, 130 W. 46th-st., N. Y.; Gladys Brockwell, Fox, Los Angeles; Mary Pickford, Lasky, Hollywood, Cal.; Alice Brady, Select, N. Y.; Constance Talmadge, Select Pictorial, 729 Seventh-ave., N. Y.; Norma Talmadge, Select Pictures, 729 Seventh-ave., N. Y.; Clara Kimball Young, 729 7th-ave., N. Y.; Harold Lloyd, Delbert-apts, 6th and Fremont, Los Angeles; Bebe Daniels, 907 Brockman Bldg., Douglas Fairbanks, Hollywood, Cal. (b) What does the name "Susie Smart" infer?

Dear Susie I am a girl of 18 summers, have dark hair and eyes and fair complexion. What color can I wear best? I had a very dear boy friend. I went with him for about a year and we had the best of times. He seemed to care for me very much and I loved him. We never became angry. On leaving one night he said that he would be back the next Wednesday, but he never came. He wrote to me twice in three months afterwards, always making excuses. He goes with another girl. I have seen him often and he always speaks but never asks me for dates. Altho I go with other gentlemen, I can never forget him. I would like to know why he went out. Would it be wrong for me to ask him? Please advise me. Can I ever win him back? Give me some suggestions how to spend an evening entertainingly with two couples, also with one couple. How to remove freckles. Is it wrong to kiss a boy friend goodnight?

BROWN EYES
(a) A girl with dark hair and eyes

STOMACH ON A STRIKE

"Pape's Diapepsin" puts Sour, Gassy, Acid Stomach in order at once!

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food—just eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.—Adv.

and a fair complexion should not find difficulty in choosing colors best suited to her type. You could probably wear almost any color very well. (b) I could not say why your friend stopped calling upon you. (c) If you feel certain that you did nothing to make him angry I would not give him the satisfaction of asking him why he stopped going with you. Just speak to him a very lady-like way, but be independent. (d) If this young man really cares for you I think that he will ask if he isn't, so with you again without trying to "in him back." (e) Two couples can spend the evening very entertainingly by playing cards, singing or dancing. When there is just one couple the movies are frequently resorted to these days. Freckles may be removed by a cream prepared especially for them. This cream may be purchased at any drug store. If you wish to hold the respect of your boy friends do not permit them to kiss you.

IODINE FOR RASHES AND SKIN TROUBLES

ECZEMA YIELDS TO IT.

For Skin Troubles that Distress and Disfigure, for Pimples, Old Sores, Chronic Ulcers, Boils, Ringworms, etc., Iodine is an antiseptic and healing remedy largely used by physicians as well as mothers who know from experience in raising their families, the virtues of Iodine for skin troubles. It awakes nights and embarrasses you by day, should be treated with Iodine to stop their spread and to heal. As a well-known medical authority says: "Iodine spread over the face and neck like a magic wand, producing eczema." But, of course, you can't use organic Iodine. Good medical practice calls for Iodine in its best form—LANOLATED IODINE—an agreeable ointment with all the virtues of organic Iodine but does not blister, and leaves scarcely a stain. It soothes, penetrates and heals.

Lanolated Iodine is a family remedy for every day use. Recommended not only for troubles of the skin but Cuts, Sprains, Wounds and Bruises are happily relieved by this triumph of medical research devised for a popular use. Iodine further, at any drug store, will supply you with a Jar. Keep it in the home to cheer yourself and family of many aillments.—Adv.

Dear Miss Smart: I am a girl of thirteen. (a) How long should my dresses be if I am 5 feet, one inch? (b) I love a boy and I think he loves me but he acts so funny when out in a crowd. You can't find out for sure? (c) Am I too young to wear a boy's ring? (d) When I ask him up he says he'll come, but he never does. (e) What should you do if a boy winks at you? I usually feel like a fool and start in to giggle.

FUNNY
(a) Your dresses should be worn about an inch below your knees. (b) You are entirely too young to be thinking about "loving" a boy. Be friendly with all the boys but do not center all your affections upon one boy. Think about your education and more serious things until you are old enough to begin to think about beauty. (c) Yes. (d) Then I don't think that I would be so foolish as to ask him any more. (e) You certainly do the wrong thing; that is probably why he winks at you. Just hold some self poise and you probably won't be the "victim" of winking.

Dear Miss Smart: I am very much in love with a young man and he seems to care for me, but he loves another girl. This girl goes with him but does not like him. Please tell me what I could do to win his love as it is not right for her to treat him that way. He likes me but I do not think he loves me like he does her. But when I am with him he thinks that there is nobody like me.

LOVESICK
My dear girl, I admit that I am not much of a judge of handwriting but I venture to say that from your writing that you are either too young to be mixed up in love affairs or that more time should be given to improvement of your writing. However, love goes where it will and it is difficult to change its course. Make yourself attractive in every way but do not "force" your love upon the young man. If he really cares for you he will probably realize his folly in the course of time and seek your companionship.

Dear Miss Smart: Please state in the Lima News, the correct way to use a thermostat. Three shovelfuls of coal saved each day by using a thermostat.

COULD HARDLY HARNESS HORSE, SAYS F. JONES

Terre Haute Truck Farmer Was In Bad Shape Before He Got Tanlac—Feels Fine, Now.

"This is the medicine that relieved me of the bad after effects of the 'Flu' and brought me my present good health, and I don't aim to be without it any more," said Frank Jones, as he purchased a bottle of Tanlac at the Bunting Drug Store in Terre Haute, Ind., recently. Mr. Jones is a well known truck farmer and lives at Maple and Hendrix-aves., Terre Haute.

"After I had the influenza last January my stomach was in a mighty bad fix. No matter what I ate it gave me trouble. For hours I would suffer severe pains. My kidneys were in bad shape and I suffered all the time from terrible pains in the small of my back. I was subject to dizzy spells, and got so I could hardly harness my horse, or do anything requiring me to stoop.

"I was losing weight and getting weaker constantly, and began suffering all the time. Finally I decided to make one more effort to get relief and began taking Tanlac. It gave me the surprise of my life in doing its work so quickly.

"It restored my appetite right now, relieved me of all my stomach troubles, dizziness, and pains in my back, and built up my weight and strength amazingly. My kidneys never bother me now, and I haven't an ache nor a pain of any kind.

"I shall praise Tanlac as long as I live, and wish I could tell everybody what a grand medicine it is for a weak, run down condition."

Tanlac is sold in Lima at Hunter's Drug Stores and the leading druggists in every town.—Adv.

ROMANCE RULES THE WORLD

William Farnum comes to the Lyric Sunday in "If I Were King"—the screen event of the season. Don't miss this superb play.

When "If I Were King" had been finished as a screen production, William Farnum did not hesitate to pronounce it the crowning achievement of his career. No use to try to tell you about William Farnum. His friends and admirers, his numbers in the millions and his popularity is so great that it has come to be universally recognized that any photodrama in which he stars is well worth seeing. This story is by the celebrated English author, Justin Huntly McCarthy, and the author's testimonial to the screen version is bound up in one observation which was that in witnessing it he felt almost that he could hear William Farnum's voice. The settings are beautiful beyond description. The action is thrilling, tense to a high degree at times. Romance of the sweet and wholesome kind pervades the plot throughout, allowing Farnum to add further laurels to his already widely recognized reputation of being the best lover on the screen. It's a picture entirely out of the ordinary. One which you will thoroughly enjoy. Coming Sunday, remember, to the Lyric. Make arrangements to see it.

GLAD SHE TOOK DRECO FOR STOMACH TROUBLE IS GONE

Dayton lady has tried many remedies for constipation, headaches, stomach troubles, but none helped as Dreco has.

"I tried one bottle of Dreco and it did me so much good I got the second one and now I am buying the third one and I am feeling a whole lot better," said Mrs. Julia Baker, of 321 W. Hartford-st., Dayton, Ohio.

"I have suffered for years with a bad stomach trouble, all my food seemed to ferment and fill me with gas, and causes awful pains. It felt like I was choking sometimes and I could not swallow it down nor spit it out. Constipation was a continual source of annoyance, and I often had splitting headaches which nothing would relieve. My nerves were shattered and my sleep badly broken, for I could roll and toss all night long and when morning came would be exhausted.

"So many of my friends had tried Dreco with such good results that I decided to try it also, and without a doubt, it has reached my case, for I now eat most anything I crave and it never hurts me the slightest. I am never bothered with the gas pains, and the constipation has gone entirely. My nerves are much stronger, I get good, full night's rest now and wake up fresh and full of vigor. I haven't had a headache since the second day I started on Dreco. I certainly do recommend Dreco for it has done me a world of good.

Dreco does not contain any iron, mercury, potash, acids or oils, but is made from the juices and extracts of many herbal plants, which combine with the juices of the stomach very pleasantly and act on the vital organs.

All druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in Lima by Baldwin Central Drug Store, corner Main and High-ats.—Adv.

The Palace of Darkened Windows

BY MARY HASTINGS BRADLEY

He whirled. "I'll fire!" he warned, staring into the dark, but his eyes, dazzled with the sun, discerned nothing, and in utter ignorance he faced the black possibilities.

"A man—a hand—" Arlee gasped incoherently.

"God Lord, what is it?" said a voice so near at hand that both were startled.

"Burroughs!" ejaculated Billy. "Is it you—Burroughs?"

"Yes, it's I, Burroughs," the owner of the voice retorted irritably. "And who the devil are you?"

"Hi—Billy B. Hill," came the jubilant answer, and "Billy" he deemed said the astonished voice, with sudden joviality, and a dark shape strode up to them. "What on earth are you doing here? And what about that firing? Think I was a robber bold?"

"Well, there are three robber sneaks outside that we are hiding from, so I wasn't sure . . . Great Caesar, old scout, but I'm glad to see you! That puts us out of the woods at last . . . It's the excavator friend," he added, turning to Arlee. "Burroughs, I present you to Miss Beecher. See and I have been having a thoroughly impossible adventure."

"Let's have a little light upon these introductions," returned the excavator, and a click was heard, and a light jumped out overhead, flooding the tunnel-like place with brightness. In its beams the three stood staring queerly at each other.

Arlee saw a slim, wiry young American, in a rough khaki clothes stained with work, a browned, unshaven young man with sleepy looking eyes and a mouth like a steel trap.

What the excavator saw was more surprising. There was his friend Billy, whom two weeks before he had seen off on a Nile steamer returning to Cairo, in tropic splendor of white serge and Panama hat, now a scarlet spectacle of sunburn and dirt, in most disgraceful tatters, and beside him what Burroughs took to be a child in tattered white, a silky fluttering white, which even his untrained observation knew was hardly cleared for desert wear. The little girl's hair was hanging lank over her shoulders, and was much the color of the sand with which her face was coated, and underneath that coating he saw that she was red as a penny with sun and wind. They were a startling pair.

Gravely, with unchanging eyes, he acknowledged the introduction, and then, "What's this about robbers?" he went on. "What kind of a yarn are you putting over?"

"Nothing I want put over on the general public," Billy was thinking very hard. "You're going to be our salvation, Burroughs, but even to you—well, I'll put it briefly. We were having a desert ride and some Turkish fellows who have annoyed her before chased us. There are our camels, just outside. And you can see one of the fellows on horseback keeping watch. The others are somewhere about . . . And now, for heaven's sake, get us a drink of water."

Burroughs walked to the door of the tomb and looked out an instant, then he turned and went toward the back, returning with a small native jar full of water.

"I've no glass, but if you can manage this—?" he said to Arlee, and she clutched the cool pottery with two hot little hands, murmuring a quick affirmative, she put it to her lips.

Then she held it out to Billy. "I suppose—we mustn't—drink as much as we want,"

"I couldn't," said Billy, after a grateful swallowing. "I'd drain the Nile . . . Got a camp here?"

"Yes. You'd have seen my men any other time of day, but we knocked off a while out of the sun," Burroughs explained. "I've rigged up this tomb as living quarters while I'm here. Now what do you want me to do? Would you like a guard?"

"We'd like a guard and a bath and cold cream," said Billy joyfully. "And then we'd like dinner and donkeys."

Burroughs grunted.

"Umph—I should say you'd one donkey already in your party—cantering around the desert with a little girl like this," he vouchsafed, and Arlee's eyes widened at his brusque nod at her. She was staring about her now with a curious interest, for all her aching tiredness, gazing wonderingly at the dazzling white walls with their strange and brilliant paintings. She saw they were in a long, deep chamber, from which other openings led to imagined depths.

"I guess you never were in a place like this before?" Burroughs inquired, and she shook her head dumbly, feeling suddenly too spent for words.

"Can she get a rest here?" said Billy anxiously. "We've had the devil of a ride."

"The place is all hers," returned Burroughs. "I'll send you some food and cold cream—you mustn't wash that sunburn, you know, or you'll be a sorry girl tomorrow—and then you can rest as long as you like. How much of a hurry are you in?" he added to Billy.

"Well, we want to take a train to Luxor tonight. I suppose Girdle's the next station?"

"You suppose? You are at sea—where did you start 'om, anyway?" But hastily Burroughs sped from that inquisitive question. "Bailiana is your next station," he reported. "You've all the time you want, and I'll take you over myself. Now make yourself as comfortable as you can," he added to Arlee, handing her a big jar of cold cream and lugging forward an armful of rugs. "I'll be back with some food in a jiffy."

"You're very kind," Arlee spoke stanchly, but as soon as the two men stepped from the tomb, she seemed to wilt down into the rugs and lay there, too tired to stir.

Outside Burroughs blew sharply on a whistle, and from the mouth of another came a file of black boys in ragged robes made a straggling appearance. Burroughs gave orders which resulted in a kindling of fire and the opening of boxes, and then he walked back to where Billy was surveying the weary camels. At a distance, like an equestrian statue, the watching horseman was standing. Burroughs stared hard at the distant Nubian, then stared harder at Billy.

"This is wonderful luck," Billy said to him, very soberly. "I didn't think of you as nearer than Thebes."

"We just heard of some fresh finds here, so I'm combing over the tombs. But you—it's none of my business, Billy, but what in hell are you doing racing over Egypt with a ten-year old kid?"

"Ten-year-old—Great Caesar, man that's a real girl! She's grown up! She's old enough to vote—or nearly."

Burroughs stared harder than ever. Then, "I shouldn't call that an extenuating circumstance," he mentioned wearily.

"Extenuating nothing! Look here, let me—"

"You needn't tell me anything, you know," Burroughs suggested in great indifference.

WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH THAT CHILD?

When children grow pale and listless their blood may be weak

Pepto-Mangan Makes Red Blood

Sold by druggists in liquid and tablet form—both the same in medicinal quality

When your child loses color, acts talks without spirit and does not play like other children, act quickly. If the condition is not a deep-seated disease but merely due to poor blood, give Pepto-Mangan. Gude's Pepto-Mangan is just the tonic for pale, thin children whose blood needs rebuilding. It is a pleasant-tasting, simple combination of exactly the ingredients that increase and enrich the blood.

Beneficial results show almost at once in brighter eyes, blooming cheeks, a sprightly step, and the whole system made more vigorous. Pepto-Mangan is obtainable in liquid or tablet form, whichever proves most convenient. Both forms possess identical medicinal qualities.

There is but one genuine Pepto-Mangan and that is "Gude's." Ask your druggist for "Gude's" and look for the name "Gude's" on the package. If it is not there, it is not Pepto-Mangan.—Advertisement.

Is Your Blood Starving for Iron?—Then Eat Spinach and Apples And Re-enforce Them With a Little Organic Iron Instead Of Taking Stimulating Medicines

If your bones were falling down as a result of a bad foundation you would not waste your time and strength by proppping it up, but you would replace the foundation. Organic iron is the foundation of your blood. When your blood is starving for iron so much more organic iron can be put in it. You must have iron, for without it your blood cannot absorb and assimilate any food or fuel and nothing you eat does you the proper amount of good. You do not get the strength out of it. To get organic iron from you must eat the foods of iron and vegetables and the kinds of grains as our forefathers did, or take organic iron from time to time and eat more such iron-containing foods as spinach and apples. But be sure that the iron you take is organic iron and not metallic iron or mineral iron, which people usually take, as metal. Mineral iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron, and is an entirely different thing from organic iron.

RECIPES FOR A DAY

Savory Omelet—Four eggs, one-half teaspoon salt, pepper, four tablespoons hot water, one tablespoon butter in pan, dried celery leaves, dried parsley, paprika. Hot water makes a more tender omelet than milk. Omelet is cooked if it is firm to the touch when pressed by finger; if it clings to the finger like beaten white of egg, it needs longer cooking. Crush the celery and parsley leaves when adding to mixture.

Browned Flour Potato Soup with Croutons—Peel, slice and boil as many potatoes as you need for the family. Use six or eight medium-size potatoes in from two to three quarts of water. Salt and pepper to taste. When soft, mash with potato masher, add generous lump butter and one quart milk. Put bearing kitchen spoon of flour in iron skillet, stir till a light, uniform brown, mix smooth with cold water or milk, and thicken soup. Melt some butter in skillet and toast small squares stale dry bread, stirring constantly to prevent burning. Add to soup just before serving, or serve in separate dish at table. Onion, paprika or any desired flavor can be added to soup.

Celery Salad—For a light salad served with a course dinner, celery makes an ideal "background" as it is always appetizing and can be combined with nuts, cheese, fresh or canned fruits or vegetables. It conserves agreeably leftovers, and with fresh lettuce leaves and other French or boiled dressing it is always a welcome addition.

After-Dinner Peppermints—One and one-half cups sugar, one-half cup boiling water, six drops oil peppermint. Put sugar and water in smooth saucepan and stir until dissolved. Boil ten minutes, remove from fire, add peppermint and beat until of right consistency. Drop from tip of spoon on slightly buttered paper.

THE KITCHEN SHEARS

While every kitchen should have its own scissors for general uses, they should be thought of as thrifty equipment as well. So many times there is a ragged or unattractive piece of food which we think we will throw away. First try the scissors on it. For slicing vegetables or cutting fruits, scissors are often more economical than a knife. Some particularly wilted lettuce when cut into neat ribbons with the scissors will make a delicious salad chiffonade. Hard-boiled eggs and leftover of bread fruit and vegetables can quickly be cut with scissors into neat shapes for garnishes. Sandwiches can be more economically cut and trimmed with scissors than with a knife. Leftover meats can be snipped into good looking pieces, and tomatoes and peaches will squash less when "scissored" than when cut.

MANY MARRIAGES ON THANKSDAY

Fifteen Licenses Issued From Probate Court

TEN IN ONE AFTERNOON

Story of Priscilla and John Alden is Retold

Priscilla and John Alden, who wooed and wed in the rich New England harvest time and counted their blessing with each returning Pilgrim Thanksgiving, still carried out the spirit at the court house Wednesday.

That's why, in many a home in Lima and Allen-co on Thanksgiving, the day was marked by something more than the mere festive board and the observance of a holiday.

Fifteen couples, at least, indie to by their license to wed, secured Wednesday, that they planned to mark well their wedding day and fix for all time the occasion of their nuptials. Five licenses were issued up to Wednesday noon.

"Won't it be easy," sighed one Priscilla to John, as they waited their turn at the marriage license.

MONKEY TIME AT CITY ZOO

Monkey-Faced Owls to Meet Owl-Faced Monkeys

Persons interested in zoology are wondering just what will happen when the owl-faced monkey in the city's zoo at Fawcett park is introduced to three monkey-faced owls, now en route to Lima from "somewhere in Texas."

Whether or not an owl-faced monkey will take kindly to a monkey-faced owl is a matter of deep conjecture in the mind of Claude Zartman, custodian of the zoo.

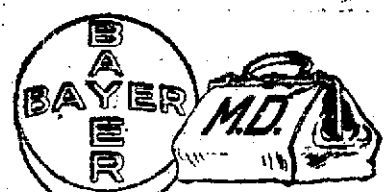

And, again, Zartman opines, perhaps a monkey-faced owl would have absolutely no use for an owl-faced monkey—and there you are!

At any rate, he says, the monkey-faced owls are coming. They should arrive in Lima soon. Zartman says a friend who went into the owl business in Texas, is sending them back, requesting they be placed in the city's zoo.

"But, you see," Zartman says, "it's going to be a rather ticklish situation when monkey-owls and owl-monkeys meet for the first time."

CENTRAL WINS OVER SOUTH HI IN ANNUAL FOOTBALL GAME—SPENCERVILLE HI DEFEATED BY ST. JOHN'S HI OF DELPHOS

SOUTH HI DEFEATED BY CENTRAL ON A FIELD OF MUD

By BILL CUNNINGHAM.
Staff Correspondent.

Playing in a sea of mud, South Hi's gridiron battlers were defeated on College Field Thanksgiving morning by the Central eleven in what is proclaimed to be the most exciting game played in Lima this season.

The score at the end of the first half ended 14 to 6 in Central's favor, which was unchanged at the end of the game. Fabs generally conceded that South outplayed Central in each quarter except the first.

Ireland, Shaw and Quillen starred for South, while Capt. Blunk, Rotoff and Mitchell played best for Central.

Central started out with a rush, scoring their points in the first quarter. The first touchdown was made by a perfect forward pass from Young to Blunk, the second by a long end run by Rotoff. Blunk kicked both goals.

South Hi's lone tally came in the second quarter when, after hard fighting, Shaw, South quarter back, carried the ball across the line. Ireland missed his attempt at goal.

Both South and Central's rosters were out in force supporting their teams to the last blow of the whistle. South played the entire game with original eleven men. Central, however, used several substitutes.

To the first quarter Central played South off their feet. South staged a comeback in the second quarter and earned their touchdown after the line when the whistle for the close of the second quarter blew, just when it looked inevitable for another touchdown.

A feature of the game was when South after hard playing and a penalty against Central, had worked the ball to the 10-yard line in the fourth quarter. Central then duplicated their famous stone wall tactics and stopped three line plunges without the ball advancing over a foot. Then Ireland attempted a pass which was knocked down by Young and it was Central's ball. Mitchell pointed out of danger on the line. Central's light freshman, got in the game the last quarter and played his usual good game. Great things are expected of him next year. None of South's players were hurt seriously except perhaps Ireland, who got some hard knocks. Taylor had his knee hurt in the second quarter but returned to the fray the last quarter. Rotoff, playing a hard spectacular game against impossible odds was forced to retire the last three minutes of the game. When he did leave the gridiron it was found that his knee was bruised and his ribs, which were crushed at Fosteria were again hurt. He deserves a lot of credit for the wonderful game he played.

A long thirty-yard pass from Ireland to Quillen was a big feature of the last quarter. This was the start of a campaign that looked good for another touchdown but was broken by the holding of the Central line.

Fash, playing his second game at center for South, played an excellent game. The game was tougher than last year's but not as hot as the game of football, both teams earning considerable praise.

Here is the game in detail

FIRST QUARTER

Berger, South, kicked off. Young, Central, caught the ball but was stopped in his tracks. Blunk made three feet on a line plunge. Rotoff, attempting an end run was stopped by the speedy Shaw for a loss of 8 yards. Rotoff hit the line but failed to gain. Mitchell pointed the ball to Young's 2 yard line. Ireland passed to Shaw for a gain of 10 yards. Drew, Central, broke through the line and stopped Quillen for a loss of 5 yards. Ireland punted.

Rotoff ran the ball back 20 yards. Taylor hit the line for 3 yards. Rotoff line plunged for 8 yards. Then for 2 yards. But on the third try he was stopped on the line of scrimmage. Young passed to Blunk who crossed the line for the first touchdown in the first three minutes of play. Blunk kicked goal.

Central kicked off. Taylor stops South man in his tracks. Mitchell stops Shaw for a loss on a line plunge. Ireland passed to Quillen, 8 yards. Ireland punted. Blunk made an end run of 25 yards pass Young to Taylor, failed pass Young to Taylor, gain 15 yards. Central pass fails. Taylor gains 5 yards on line plunge. Rotoff ripped around end for a gain of 15 yards then thru line for 10 yards. Taylor gained 5 yards on a line plunge. Central penalized 10 yards for off side. Rotoff made a touchdown on an end run of 10 yards. Blunk kicked goal.

Central kicked off. Ireland gains 3 yards thru line. Shaw makes 2 yards thru the line. Ireland thru line 3 yards. Shaw thru line 3 yards. Robinson, Central, stops Quillen for loss of 5 yards. Ireland end run for 5 yards but fails to make distance and Central regains the ball.

Rotoff made a gain of 8 yards. Central penalized 10 yards for holding.

SECOND QUARTER

Central kicked off. Ireland passes, fails. Ireland thru line gained 2 yards. Shaw thru line, gain 5 yards. Shaw gain 5 yards. Quillen passes. Shaw, 5 yards. Quillen passes. Young, Central, intercepted it. Blunk end run, no gain. Rotoff, thru line, 5 yards. Central punts. South stopped in tracks. Pass Quillen to Ireland. 10 yards. South pass fails. Weingardner gains 5 yards on line plunge.

Quillen, thru line, 5 yards. South pass fails. South penalized 5 yards. Quillen thru line 10 yards. Weingardner line plunges for 5 yards. Hunter, Central, stops Ireland for loss. South penalized 5 yards. Ireland end run to Quillen, 10 yards. Shaw hits line for 5 yards, then for 5 yards.

LOS ANGELES, Cal. — Eddie O'Donnell, famous automobile racer, was near death here Friday as the result of an accident in the 250-mile speedway race, was near death here Friday as the result of an accident in the 250-mile speedway race which cost the life of Gaston Chevrolet and Lylis Jolls. O'Donnell's mechanical.

O'Donnell sustained a fractured skull and both arms were broken in a collision with the racer driven by Chevrolet. The two cars roared down the incline together, landing in a heap on top of the drivers and mechanics at the bottom of the race.

John Brennan, Chevrolet's mechanic, escaped serious injury. Chevrolet's landing at the time of his death was for him the national automobile racing championship for 1920. The championship is computed on a point basis.

Gaston, youngest of the three Chevrolet racing brothers, won the fastest time in the 500-mile Indianapolis speedway races this year making the record time of 8:15 miles per hour.

Howard Scales, leading every lap, finished first in the speedway races here Thursday. Eddie Miller won second place, and Eddie Hearn third.

AKRON TIGERS COP TITLE

AKRON — Forward passes with mud-kicked ball on a slim, slippery field, when least expected, won the professional football championship of the world for Akron pios over Canton Bull Dogs, 7 to 0 Thursday.

In the first period, Berge, record Griggs' fumble of a punt on Canton's 40-yard line. King, West Virginia back, passed to Bietre for 20 yards.

A 10-yard pass to Nash resulted in the score the future. Berge, who dodging past two Bull Dog defensive players for the touchdown.

Akron made seven first downs to three for Jim Thorpe's eleven, which had held the world's championship for two years. The locals are undefeated, and have been undefeated on only one. Cleveland held them to a 7 to 7 tie.

MOORE TO BOX CLEVELANDER

CLEVELAND — Pat Moore, of Memphis, and Carl Tremaine of Cleveland, have been matched to box ten rounds here on the night of December 2. They are to weight 113 pounds at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

TY COBE RAZED OUT OF PARK

SAN JOSE, Calif.—Ty Cobb was booted out of the ball park by indignant fans who came to see him play here, when he quit the game yesterday at the end of the sixth inning after an argument over an emery ball. The umpire and the San Jose team refused to take the ball, to which he objected out of the game, he declined to go to bat and left the park Cobb's all-stars were defeated 7 to 2.

SPENCERVILLE HI LOSES TO ST. JOHN'S

SPENCERVILLE — Before a crowd of fans that packed the Armory here last night, the Spencerville high school basketball team was defeated by a score of 32 to 18 by St. John's Hi of Delphos.

The local boys put up a stiff game the first half and started scoring in the first minute of play. Throughout the game they showed no signs of weakness, but the heavier weight of the visitors is contributed by fans here as responsible for their ability to keep the ball in their area during the final half.

Bill Barlow, sporting editor of The Lima News, refereed the game. In a preliminary, the girls quintet of South Hi, Lima, was from the Spencerville girls by the one-sided score of 38 to 2.

Much interest is being manifested in the game to be played Christmas night between Company K of this city and the High School team. Much rivalry exists between the two ice squads and the season dispute of which is the best will be decided in this game.

OLD STORY TOLD IN NEW WAY

"Neglected Wives" is Repetition of "Eternal Triangle"

STORY OF NORTH THRILLS

Orpheum Bill Best That Has Been Seen for Some Time

ALTHOUGH "Neglected Wives" is not one of the best pictures I have seen, it is, truthfully speaking, a drama that should please and even fascinate the majority of you.

You've seen the same picture filmed many times, but perhaps in a different aspect. It's the sad story of the wife, who, while blessed with every luxury she could desire, is not happy, and all because her husband thinks more of his political career than he does of his wife. Dorothy, the wife, is a typical woman, whose god is her love for her husband and child.

Friend husband, having provided his family with everything costly and beautiful, thought he was the ideal husband, a model man and all that sort of thing. Friend wife, however, cared naught for all her pretties, as long as her husband was too busy to appreciate her. And so they go on, he working, preoccupied; she, unhappy, discontented. Haven't you seen that same situation dozens of times?

A friend of the family, one James Widoworth, comes into Dorothy's existence. He poses as a "sympathetic" friend and passes compliments that sound like the lost chord to the poor neglected wife. And she drifts along with no thought of evil, until she is caught in the net that has slowly been closing around her.

Yes, you guessed it. Husband sees the error of his way and the wall of indifference which has stood between them for so long comes crashing down—with a loud bang.

Anne Luther as the wife is a sweet little thing whom you can't help liking. Charles Gerard, the sympathetic friend, is thoroughly despicable and no one cares much when he's left out in the cold. There's a darling youngster in the cast too—I believe her name is Ivy Ward—who does splendid work.

As a whole, "Neglected Wives" makes a splendid entertainment.
Certainly it is well acted, lighted and photographed.

The picture is being featured at the Lyric.

"Nomads of the North"

HERE'S a picture that provides more thrills per reel than any feature I've seen for months.
"Nomads of the North" as you will know, is one of the works of James Oliver Curwood, and is a story of the forests, with wild animals running around rampant, and an adorable little pup and a bear in the foreground.
In fact, I enjoyed the performance of these two little beggars as well as the love story itself—of course there is one, and a dandy, too!

Nannette Roland is the beautiful daughter of old Andre Roland, who,
to speak candidly, is in the last stages and about ready to check out of this old world forever. There are two, no three, offers of marriage awaiting little daughter, but only one does she crave, and he's been gone for years. And so, she finally consents to become the bride of the villain in the case (you see, he'd convinced her that Raoul, her lover, was dead.)

At the wedding ceremony, Raoul turns up, quite unexpectedly, considering that he was dead, claims his sweetheart. They become husband and wife, and escape to foreign parts during a blinding rain (rains are always blinding in the movies you know).

The law, however, does not leave them along long, for in all the frac-cas concerning who was to marry the girl, poor Raoul was forced to kill a man, and even the the man was a no-account whiskey-peddler.
still the law must have its course.

Betty Blythe is the heroine Nannette, a beautiful and hardworking lady, who strains an ear to hear the director's voice and leaps to do his bidding. You can almost hear her shout "I will succeed! I will succeed!" That's fine I hope she does.

Lon Chaney is the object of her affections and he's perfectly wonderful, altho the villain was so much better looking than you want her to marry him, instead. The gallant corporal of the mounted police, as played by Lewis Stone, is all that one could desire in the way of self-sacrificing, rejected lovers. He had wanted Nannette all the time, you know, but when the time came to deliver her husband into the hands of the law, he hasn't the heart, and all he asks in return is, "If you ever have a son, call him Mike, will you?"

Newsa and Brimstone, the pup and the cub, are splendid; the forest fire, in the last reel of the picture, is most realistically staged; the scenery's beautiful. Hence, no doubt, "Nomads of the North" will enjoy its full share of popularity.

It's appearing at the Regent.

The Orpheum
EVENLY balanced and greatly varied is the program being shown at the Orpheum this tra good; one or two others are more common, but the bill as a whole is passable.

a lot of laughs out of the audience.
And by the way, did you ever notice how dense some audiences can be? Things that would get a regular laugh elsewhere, get a mere ha-ha here and sometimes not even that much. But to return to the program.

The playlet "Pinched," while a sort of object lesson; has some splendid comedy and the principals are quite competent. Harry Mehan has some clever stuff and the Livingstone Trio, performers on three bars, are average in their line. The other acts are the usual run of vaudeville.

NEW YORK — Favored issues recorded a double gain at the opening of Friday's stock market, the movement denoting further short covering. Within the first half hour, however, a sharp reversal set in, especial weakness being shown by shippings and oils. Atlantic Gulf and Mexican Petroleum lost 3 points each, Royal Dutch 2, Baldwin Locomotive 1 and Canadian Pacific and St. Paul large fractions. Initial gains in Reading, Northern Pacific, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel and American Sugar were forfeited. Exchanging action and other foreign centers was heavy.

Mexican Petroleum and Crucible Steel suffered extreme losses of five points in the early reaction. United Fruit fell 2 and Royal Dutch, Pan-American and Houston Oil 2 1/2. Baldwin lost 2 points, Virginia Carolina Chemical 3, International Paper 3 1/2 and Vanadium and Lackawanna steels 1 1/2. Ralls followed the general trend for a time but strengthened when buying of Atchafalaya, Norfolk and Western, Southern Pacific, New York Central and Rock Island effected actual gains of 1 to 3 1/2 points. American Woolen was first among the specialties to revive and Pittsburgh and West Virginia enhanced Wednesday's substantial gain on dividend rumors. Call money opened and renewed into next week at 6 per cent.

Every Druggist in U. S. Instructed to Refund Price While You Wait at Counter If Relief Does Not Come Within Two Minutes.

Delightful Taste, Immediate Relief, Quick Warm-Up.

The sensation of the year in the drug trade is Aspirin! The two-minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories, tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the common people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are now supplied with the wonderful new elixir, so all you have to do to get rid of that cold is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspirin and tell him to serve you two teaspoonfuls with four teaspoonfuls of water in a glass. With your watch in your hand, take the drink at once, swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel your cold fading away like a dream within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for all drug gists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

When you cold or cough is relieved, take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and babies. For Aspirin is by far the safest and most agreeable cold and cough remedy for infants and children.—Adv.

CHICAGO — In a general rush to sell, wheat tumbled Friday to below $1.50 a bushel, the first time since the world war. The immediate bearish factors were the strained banking situation in North Dakota, a break in the cotton market and new down 1 in foreign exchange. British buying of wheat took place on the downward swing of prices, but rallies failed to last, and the market fell as low as $1.47 a bushel for March delivery. Opening quotations, which varied from 3 1/4 to 3 cents lower, with December $1.58 1/2 to 1.56 1/4 and March 1.47 to 1.51, were followed by only moderate and brief recoveries from initial bottom figures.

Corn weakened with wheat. After opening 5-8 to 1 3/4 lower, including May 70 1/2 to 70 3/4, the market reacted a little, but then sagged again.

Oats were depressed by the action of other cereals, starting 1-8 to 5-8 down, May 47 3/4 to 45 1/8, and continuing weak.

An advance in hog values counterbalanced to some extent in the provision market the bearish effect of grain decline.

December corn touched the lowest point yet before the war, but the market subsequently showed stubborn resistance to selling pressure. The close was nervous at 3-4c net decline to 3-8c advance, with May 71 3/8 to 71 1/2.

Comparative firmness was shown in wheat later as a result of estimates that 1,000,000 bushels of domestic grown had been bought for export by way of the Gulf of Mexico, making 4,000,000 bushels so far this year. The close was unsettled 6 to 7 3/4c net lower with December $1.52 1/2 to 1.53 1/4 and March $1.48 to 1.48 3/4.

SHORT SHAVINGS

Judge Emmett Jackson claims that the oldest joke is the one about the Irishman who is in a brown study on the street. Another Irishman met him and said:

"Well, Pat," said Mike, "my wife told me to get something for dinner and for the life of me I can't remember what it was I was to get."

"On, cheer up," said Pat, "here have a cigar, maybe you can recall your memory while you smoke." Mike lit the cigar and puffed it. After a few whiffs Mike brightened up and said: "You are right, Pat. The cigar made me think what the wife wanted. The wife wanted cabbage."

The sanitary inspector knocked sharply at the door of a Lima residence and it soon opened.

"How many people live here?" he began.

"Nobody lives here," answered the daughter of the house; "we're only staying for a short time."

"But how many are here?" "I'm here. Father's gone for a walk and mother is—"

"Stop, stop!" exclaimed the man impatiently. "I want to know how many inmates are in this house. How many people slept here last night?"

"Well, you see," was the reply, "I had the toothache, dreadful and my little brother had the stomach ache and we all took on so much that nobody slept a wink."

Then the inspector said he would call again.

If you want to get rid of eczema, pimples, or other distressing skin eruptions, you will accept no "substitute" for Resinol. Preparations similar in name or appearance are not "just the same as Resinol." Although a few unscrupulous dealers may offer them as or for Resinol, they are often crudely made, of little healing power, and some may even be dangerous to use. Buy in the original blue package.

Resinol is never sold in bulk
